AUGUST 17-19 & 22-23
THE 2016 INSTITUTE FOR SOCIAL CHANGE

APPLICATION DEADLINE
Monday, May 3, 2016

NOTIFICATION
Monday, June 6, 2016

COST
Upon acceptance, participants will be asked to pay a $20 fee for program materials. Please contact Laura Schram (lschram@umich.edu) to request a waiver.

APPLICATION INFORMATION
To apply for the Institute for Social Change:
E-mail a letter of interest and CV to contact-aoc@umich.edu
The first paragraph of your letter should include the following information:
First name, Last name, E-mail address, graduate program, degree, and year you began your program. Your letter of interest should then address in 500-750 words: What do you hope to gain from participating in the Institute for Social Change? What personal and professional experiences inform your interest in public scholarship, engaged pedagogy, or community-based research? What ideas do you have about how you might connect your scholarly interests with social issues that concern you in order to advance the public good?

WHO
Rackham Students (from all disciplines: limited to 25 students)

COORDINATORS
Matthew Countryman (History & American Culture)
Kyle Frisina (American Culture)
Laura Schram (Political Science & Educational Development)

ABOUT
An intensive, five-day institute introducing the conceptual and practical dimensions of publicly engaged scholarship, pedagogy and practice. The institute will comprise thematic panels and public engagement workshops with scholars, community members, and cultural activists, as well as visits to The Henry Ford Museum and Arab American National Museum. Participants will also have opportunities for structured reflection and personalized feedback on their individual work.

RACKHAM GRADUATE SCHOOL
ARTS OF CITIZENSHIP
UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

Public Scholarship at the University of Michigan